TUCK'S POST CARD

CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

By Appointment.

The Magpie. A woodland bird, resident and common in the British Isles. In many districts it is much persecuted and has been almost exterminated on account of the damage it does to the eggs and young of game, and other birds. The nest, which is generally placed high up in the fork of a tree, is large and composed of sticks, the inside being lined with rootlets and the whole covered with a roof of sticks.
